Hassan Rehman

Software Engineer / Software Developer

a self-sufficient, quick learner and gold medalist majoring in software engineering at a prestigious institution (FAST-NUCES, Lahore), with proficiency in several programming languages, including Java, C++, Ruby on Rails, and others. My effort and constancy are evident by the fact that my name has been on the dean's list five times in a row. Additionally, I've worked as an intern to get expertise with ruby on rails website development.
